The Nock Deighton Challenge 2015

For young Composers

The Competition

- There is no entry fee for this competition.
- The competition is open to any young person under the age of 21 on 1st April 2015. Entries will consist of a piece of music fully scored for brass band and should generally be between 2 ½ and 4 minutes long (although entries longer or shorter than this will be considered on their merits).
- Entrants agree to the use of their composition by the Ironbridge Gorge Brass Band Festival Committee (the organisers) in youth workshops and where appropriate for performance at the 2015 Festival. However, copyright remains the property of the composer and any use outside of the above will be at his/her discretion.
- Entries need to be in an electronic format the software used needs to be clearly identified. In the event of software being used that is not accessible to the organisers, they reserve the right to insist on hard copy. MP3 or midi files may be submitted to assist the judges, but final judgments will be entirely based on the scores.
- All entries must be accompanied by a written description of the music.
- Entries will be shortlisted by a local panel of experienced brass band musicians and the final selection will be undertaken by a guest judge who is well known in the brass band world as a conductor, composer and contest adjudicator. No correspondence will be entered into regarding this final selection but, where possible, feedback will be offered to unsuccessful entrants.
- The winner will receive a cash prize of £150 and hold the Eric Peagam memorial shield for 11 months. There will be two runner-up prizes of £75 and £50 and all entrants whose submissions meet the entry criteria will receive a token prize of £5.
- The Eric Peagam memorial shield must be signed for by someone over 18 and be returned to the festival committee no later than 1st July 2016.
- Completed entries with completed entry form must be emailed to musiccomp@ironbridgebandfestival.co.uk by 1st April 2015 to allow sufficient time for judging and preparation of band parts for rehearsal. Any entries received after this date will be retained and entered for next year's competition. Early notification of intent to enter will be welcomed and we can be contacted to provide any further advice.
- Entrants will be notified of the results of the competition by email and a list of prize-winners will be published on the Festival website (www.ironbridgebandfestival.co.uk)
